Product Page Intro	Introducing Peach Stones Exfoliant (Irradiated), an all-natural skincare product with a rich history rooted in traditional beauty practices. Its origins can be traced back to ancient cultures that recognised the exfoliating properties of peach stones. These stones, once carefully ground, form a gentle and finely textured exfoliant. This exfoliant is celebrated for its versatility, catering to all skin types, even those with sensitivity concerns. The unique benefits of Peach Stones Exfoliant extend beyond its gentle exfoliation. Through its use, dead skin cells are effectively sloughed away, unveiling a radiant and revitalized complexion. Furthermore, this product enhances blood circulation, promoting a healthy glow, while also encouraging collagen production for firmer, more youthful skin.
